

I prefer the states no call list, since I signed up I have not been bothered with that invasion of privacy in my home. If this is taken away they are back on the phone bothering you at all times of the day and evening. If I want anything they sell I will make the call myself I do not need to be harassed in my own home